A Guide to Selections from the Art on Campus Collection

Iowa State University is home to the largest campus public art program in the United States. Over 600 major public works of art by significant Iowa, national and international artists, are located across campus in buildings, courtyards, and open spaces. Most outdoor public works of art can be viewed at any time, interior works of art can be viewed during the individual building’s open hours.

Art on Campus at Reiman Gardens: Totems by Ted Sizing Crow Garner
Joy II by Christian Petersen
Dikhotomia by Tom Stancliffe
Pediment by Tom Stancliffe
Shep by Nina deCreed Ward

Visitors are also encouraged to visit the Lloyd Veterinary Medical Center to view additional public art by Christian Petersen, Sticks Inc., Gwynn Munnill, and Michaela Mahady.

The printing of this map is supported by the Ames Community Grant Program.

For more information regarding these selections and others from the Art on Campus Collection, visit www.museums.iastate.edu