Brunnier in Bloom
Rules and Regulations

Fresh cut and artificial botanicals and flowers may be used in the arrangements.

No soil, dirt, sand, mulch or fresh produce may be used in the arrangements.

The size of the support container is not to exceed 16 inches square. There is no restriction on height. If you have special display requests, contact Nancy ahead of time.

Participants may choose their object for inspiration from the current exhibitions in the Brunnier Art Museum (only one participant per object – first come, first serve). Once selected, tell the museum desk staff your selection or e-mail it to Nancy.

The objects chosen by participants as inspiration will be subject to approval by University Museums staff.

If you register and decide not to participate, advanced notification is appreciated.

By agreeing to participate, you are giving University Museums allowance to publish your name and/or the name of your business or organization in public relations documents.

Only one design allowed per participant.

Multiple participants can compete from the same organization/business.

Important Dates for Participants:
No later than Wednesday, March 22nd Participants must send information for their arrangement to Nancy. Please include name, professional affiliation, title of arrangement, materials used, and a two- to-three sentence interpretation or description.

Friday, March 24th All arrangements must be delivered to the Brunnier Art Museum between 2:00 and 5:00 pm.

Friday, March 24th Judged prizes will be announced at 7:45 pm. Prizes will be awarded based on creativity, aesthetic, and the use of the chosen object as inspiration. Need not be present to win.

Sunday, March 26th People’s choice prize will be awarded based on the floral design receiving the most votes from event visitors.

Sunday, March 26th All floral designers must pick up their arrangement between 4:00 and 5:00 pm.

Contact Information:
Nancy Gebhart
nancyg@iastate.edu
515-294-3342